Abstract

AL Shareef Al Radi lived in Baghdad, the capital of Islamic civilization. He got his education of his community which was rich with scholars, authors, heads and princes .So he was an encyclopedic scholar, aware of the eloquence of Arabs and Qura'nic sciences, language, poetry and prose. The scholars attest to his pioneering career in rhetorical art and his deductive experience in its different dimensions. His book "Prophetic Metaphors" is rich in linguistic metaphor. It has always been a wonderful example in scientific and religious arts' mastery. It is remarkable to every person who seeks to detect Al Shareef Al Radi's literary production 'his rhetorical efforts and his distinction in practical approach for eloquence forms in Qura'an and Hadith diverting his attention from the text itself, because of the text's distinct results on rhetorical referee and jurisprudential deduction '.

This study focuses on Al Radi's deduction for meanings and their metaphors with an objective vision and a careful study of texts in order to put the results of Al Radi's literary production in its suitable context which comply with the scientific concept for honorable hadith and with the techniques of eloquence.
