

Protection of private life of public figures in accordance with the Syrian Media Law No. 108 of 2011

Dr. Kinda Al-Shammat*

Abstract

The Syrian legislator is keen on the legislation that he issued on the right of individuals to protect their private lives, and he specified a special text for public figures in the media law, which is considered by the public as being in the spotlight through its tasks.

In fact, these characters enjoy the right to privacy, but this right is not as much given to the average person, which raises questions about

The concept of public personality and the extent to which it enjoys privacy?

What is the scope of this right, and what is the legal protection it has in the face of the media?

---

For the Paper in Arabic Language See the Pages(9-34).

*Teacher at Faculty of Law - Damascus University.