

Administrative Reform Concept

Najem al - Ahmad
Department of Public Law
Faculty of Law
Damascus University

Abstract

The administrative reform aims to treat the problems that the Administrative System suffers from it to remove the detaining defects and to raise the efficiency and activity of the administrative reform in order to enable this system to carry out its duties in best ways, to build and develop the structures and skills, to face the renewed future needs, to match with the complete development and to achieve the state aims. Hence this reform will become the corner stone for executing different plans of the state. The following matters deepens the importance of the Administrative Reform in Syria : the inflation of state expenses, the increase of the governmental system rule against the double of the services it offers. These matters confirms the call for the administrative reform as it is considered a tool to limit the expenses firstly, to achieve a qualification stage in the administrative system secondly, to activate the points of justice, equivalence and the Law Control Principle thirdly, in addition to the revolution of the communications & information and it affects through canceling barriers and blocks related to knowledge exchanging in a way that wish of modernization has increased through importing technology and supplying thereof .

It can be said that the Administrative Reform means the complete approach which aims to reform, correct and improve the current positions for the complete administrative system, to link them with the society ambitions through legal, structural and behavioral contents in a way it makes it a part of the comprehensive development process, through working on affecting the environment and the relations surrounding with the administrative system. By this it will join the development, modernization and administrative development

For the Paper in Arabic Language See the Pages (349-382)