

Eating from fruit of orchards and their plants In Islamic Shariah

Hind AL- Kgoli
Faculty of Islamic Jurisprudence
University of Damascus

Abstract

This research deals with the rule of eating fruits from orchards and their plants and the person who passes by them in Islam , whether there is necessity or not.

The research explains the evidences from the Quran and traditions (Hadith) , and it concludes by discussing every school (opinion) apart from each other that the most correct one which suits with the rule that it is illegal to deal with property of others but by their permission .