

AGREEMENT OF COOPERATION BETWEEN DAMASCUS UNIVERSITY
AND THE UNIVERSITY OF COPENHAGEN ON STUDENT EXCHANGE

The agreement for the academic exchange program between Damascus University and the University of Copenhagen, as it relates to the exchange of students, shall be implemented in the following way:

Article 1

The students participating in the exchange program under the terms of this agreement shall be selected initially by the home university, and the host university shall make final admission decisions for each case.

Article 2

Three students only may be enrolled annually at the partner university, and the number of the students shall be modified in advance by mutual consultation. Either institution may send a student for one semester rather than a full academic year, with two students enrolling for one semester each being equivalent to one student enrolling for one year.

Article 3

The period of enrolment of a student shall not exceed one year.

Article 4

The host university must appoint a qualified advisor and provide appropriate courses of study for each student.

Article 5

The student shall possess sufficient language ability requested by the host university.

Article 6

Participating students shall continue as candidates for degrees at their home university and will not be candidates for degrees at the host university.

Article 7

Each university agrees to provide documentation of the course work completed by the students as well as appropriate academic information about the performance of the students at the host university. The home university shall be responsible for awarding subject credits based on work undertaken and evaluated at the host university.

Article 8

The host university shall make efforts and assists in finding suitable housing on or near the campus.

Article 9

The liaisons for this agreement will be the International Office at the University of Copenhagen, and the Office of International and Cultural Relations at Damascus University.

Article 10

This agreement shall remain in force for a period of five (5) years from the date its ratification by both parties, with the understanding that it may be terminated by either party giving twelve months notice to the other party in writing. The agreement may be extended by mutual consent of the two parties.

Article 11

This agreement is subject to laws and regulations in force in both universities.

This agreement is written in four original copies two in Arabic and two in English with equal validity for both.
