Abstract

The city strategic plans aren't only the plans for land uses, but they are considered a base for all various fields of a city; such as historical, economical, social, and so forth.

Today cities have many problems, because the strategic plans don't fulfill the needs of city.

The research aims to know the considerations of strategic plans for Homs, then evaluate them to suggest a strategy to develop them.

The research uses many methods according to the objectives; they involve historical analysis, critical analysis, descriptive analysis, comparative analysis and finally deductive one.

The research tackles; the strategic plans don't express the different fields Homs and their reasons.

The research tackles these points:

1. Definitions of both concept of consideration and strategic plans ;
2. Consideration of doing the strategic plan according to decree /5/ to date 1982 ;
3. Analysis and comparison experience of Riyadh with Housman considerations in Paris ;
4. Explanation of Homs and historical study in the strategic plans.
